RE: 1994 Fundraising activities

Seneca Cookbook Publishing is an entirely gay-owned and operated printing firm located in suburban Kansas City, Missouri. Since 1987 we have specialized in the publishing of personalized cookbooks as fundraisers.

We are making a special offer to the Metropolitan Community Church Fellowship during the 1994 calendar year - please see the enclosed flyers. Either or both of these offers will be in effect for the entire year, but only for MCCs.

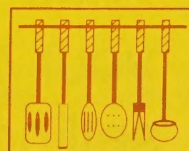

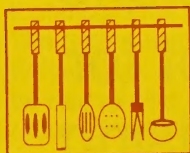

Thousands of organizations have used personalized cookbooks to raise money in a dignified and fun way. . . .and, our special 60-day interest-free payment plan allows you to receive the books before publishing costs are due. In addition, we provide advance payment coupons that encourage purchases before the book is even produced. (Your church will handle all of the money -- no money is sent in advance of publication.) This way you can raise money before the cookbook is even ordered! All you have to do is keep track of who has purchased the book in advance.

If you think this may be something your congregation would be interested in please feel free to contact me personally, using our toll-free number, for further information. Thank you!

SUPPLY REQUEST FORM

Printed below is a sample announcement letter we will supply to you at no charge. This letter is a great way to let the people in your community know about your cookbook plans, and submit recipes at the same time. (The actual letter will have a recipe form printed on the back.)

Dear Friend:

We are pleased to announce that our organization is in the process of compiling a cookbook of our favorite recipes to be published in the near future.

This cookbook will contain recipes from our members, friends and community, with each contributors' name printed beside the recipe.

In order to make this a huge success, please submit AT LEAST ONE recipe, or as many as you like. To avoid printing errors, please use the reverse side of this letter to list your recipe....PRINTED OR TYPEWRITTEN. Please indicate which of the categories shown below your recipe is to be classified:

Appetizers	Breads and Rolls
Main Dishes	Soups, Salads, Vegetables
Desserts and Pastries	Beverages and Miscellaneous

We are anticipating a great demand for our personalized cookbook, and since a limited number will be printed, please reserve copies for yourself, family and friends on this form.

Remember, all proceeds from the cookbook go directly into OUR treasury, to fund OUR activities. Thank you for your help!

Please reserve _____ copies for me. Telephone _____
Signed _____

We will send up to 1,000 copies of the letter, with the recipe form printed on the back, at no charge to you.

OR

You may compose your own announcement letter. If you like, we will print the letter with your letterhead or logo. Please enclose a good clean, sharp copy of same in black ink on white paper. If a letter of your writing is to be used, please print or type the wording, we will re-typeset before printing.

Either way, we will provide 1,000 copies free. When these letters are distributed to your contributors, allow a week or so for their return. (A follow-up phone call may be necessary for some.) You'll be surprised at how many recipes you get!

When you have all of the recipes you can use, sort through them, making sure all are TYPEWRITTEN OR LEGIBLY PRINTED, then group them by category. Send them to Seneca Publishing, we'll do the rest. (PLEASE NOTE: The recipes will be typeset to appear in the finished cookbook in the order in which they are received. If, for example, you want all of the cake recipes to appear together in the dessert category, all of the cake recipes must be submitted separated from the other dessert recipes. We would suggest using rubber bands or large paper clips to separate the various types of recipes within one category. If you wish, we will separate the various recipes for you, but additional costs will be incurred.)

PLEASE REMEMBER: YOUR PERSONALIZED COOKBOOK WILL PRACTICALLY SELL ITSELF IF YOU HAVE LOTS OF DIFFERENT RECIPES, SUBMITTED BY A VARIETY OF PEOPLE!

ALSO

We will send up to 500 ADVANCE SALE COUPONS and GIFT CERTIFICATES at no cost to you. Both of these are a great way to collect money for the books before they are even ordered. All you have to do is keep a list of the people who have already ordered and paid for the book(s). When the books arrive, simply notify the people they are ready to be picked up.

Good news!

It's not too late to stock up for Pride Month.

Signs of Pride decals, buttons, and leather-and-glass-bead jewelry can be in your hands in less than a week. We know you don't always have time to wait weeks for merchandise to arrive, so we keep thousands of decals and a good supply of our other proud stuff on hand at all times. That means we can fill your order the day we get it.

Our primary product is STATIC CLING DECALS with symbols of pride. These decals cling to glass without the use of sticky adhesives and are intended for application on the inside of car windows or on other clean glass surfaces that are protected from the weather. These decals can be moved from place to place and are popular with people who don't want to apply permanent bumper-stickers to their cars.

For rapid service you can phone orders in (803-862-7833) or order by fax (803-862-6944) and we will ship COD. If we receive your order before noon, 99% of the time it will go out in the mail that same day. It is our policy to put all orders in the mail in 48 hours or less.

Of course you can mail orders if you prefer and we will give your order attention the day we receive it. Mail orders to: Signs of Pride, P O Box 762, Simpsonville, SC 29681. Save COD charges by enclosing payment with your order.

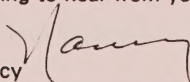

We charge you only the actual cost of mailing your order, and sometimes even less! And there are no handling charges to run up your bill. (Details are on the order form.)

We require a minimum order of 50 pieces (mix and match) or $50 to qualify for wholesale prices. All orders not prepaid are shipped COD unless credit arrangements have been made. Arrangements for net-30 can be requested by sending in a credit application telling us a little about your company and giving appropriate references.

So take heart. All you need to do is call, fax, or write. Your order will get immediate attention and you'll have a good selection of side-line items on hand in almost no time.

Hoping to hear from you soon. And have a happy Pride season!

Nancy

The Fabulous Lynn Lavner

PGN

Philadelphia Gay News

February 1, 1990

by Tommi Avicoli

Great things come in small packages, they say.

Lesbian singer/comic Lynn Lavner proved that last weekend with a powerhouse show that kept us laughing and sometimes left us a little teary-eyed.

The five-foot-tall leather-clad singer knocked us out with her original songs and her outrageous digs at everything from political correctness to her middle class Jewish parents who didn't have a lawn but nonetheless owned a pink flamingo.

The show left no doubt in anyone's mind that Lavner is a one-of-a-kind in the field of gay and lesbian entertainment—a one-woman Tom Lehrer drawing her style from the greats of the cabaret circuit past.

Hers is a polished act, matured through years of hard work and dedication to what the world has yet to recognize—the openly gay performing arts.

Everything is fair game in her act—cats (the sacred animal of the lesbian community), family, relationships and even herself. It's this willingness to question everything, to avoid political correctness, to maintain no sacred cows, that makes Lavner the important voice she is.

And it's her ability to make you laugh one moment and cry the next that makes her impact unforgettable. But don't be misled, you won't do much crying at a Lavner concert. Your sides might ache from laughing so hard, but you won't need visine for the red eyes.

Having said that, let me tell you about one of the somber moments. Without the usual funny lead-in that she provides for most of her numbers, Lavner launched into her song about friends who died of AIDS. It is the kind of lyric that hits you in the gut and doesn't let go. No poetry here, it's not necessary, just raw feelings about friends who have passed on, described simply in the chorus as "fine young men." Lavner was affected by the song that night, turning away from the audience momentarily at the end. Was she wiping away a tear? There were quite a few in the audience, too.

While the audience was still reeling from the power of that song, she leaped into what she described as a song her mother might have written, summed up best in the line, "don't wear leather pants to the Seder."

Another favorite of mine (which made my Radical Faerie/animal rights friend uncomfortable because he wasn't sure how serious she was) is her song about cats. Now I am also a cat lover and an animal rights supporter but I found her lyrics about a woman who finds herself replaced in her lover's eyes by a cat to be right on target. "It used to be your therapist, now you have a cat," she sings. I've had ex-lovers who have complained about my doting over my cat, so I understand the feeling.

Her comic routines between songs are riveting. She has an incredible sense of timing. She can linger on a moment if the audience is appreciative, or move on quickly if it doesn't get a particular joke. She is at home on stage, no doubt about it, she is so alive in front of the lights that one wonders how she manages to survive between shows.

Her quips between songs are classic. Here are two of my favorites: "I am the adult survivor of heterosexual parents," and "I'm the original Yent except I would have known what to do with Amy Irving."

Politics played a more important part in this show than I remember from previous Lavner concerts. I've seen Lynn perform twice before this, so am somewhat familiar with her routine. And the politics seemed more prevalent this time around. Maybe it's a sign of the times. It's certainly not an unwelcomed addition.

Lynn Lavner sings and cracks wise about life in the 'Gay '90s.'

Gay comic: Laughter is best activism

By DAVID CUTHBERT
Staff writer

"'Lesbian chic,' said Lynn Lavner uncertainly, "is that the guy they indicted for bombing the World Trade Center?"

Lavner, who sings and cracks wise about life in "the Gay '90s," is a gay political activist who believes "the best way to get a message across is through entertainment and humor."

Billed as "America's most politically incorrect entertainer," her act is a mix of pertinent songs and prickly humor. She says she's started "a support group for adult survivors of heterosexual parents," adding, "I used to tell people things; now I self-disclose."

The self-described "short, left-handed, Jewish lesbian from New York" says, "I'm the real Yentl — except I would have known what to do with Amy Irving."

Lavner notes that "there are six admonitions in the Bible against homosexuality, but 362 admonitions against heterosexual activity. Now, I don't mean to imply that God doesn't love straight people — only that they need more supervision."

Acclaimed by Harvey Fierstein as "a fabulous entertainer," Lavner performs Friday night as part of the 12th annual international convention of Parents and Friends of Lesbians and Gays (PFLAG).

"PFLAG is so important because the issues they address are civil rights and family issues," Lavner said in a phone interview. "They offer a real show of support through acceptance, education and love. These are people who have not thrown their children out when their kids openly acknowledged their sexuality."

"Children should not feel they are letting people down by being true to their nature."

Lavner and her lover of 17 years "are co-parents of three daughters. I always say I went to bed with one woman and woke up with four."

They raised the girls — now in their 20s — together. "I was the only mother in the pediatrician's office wearing a black leather jacket," says Lavner. Today, she says they're "dying for grandchildren." Lavner envisions taking one on the road with her so "that some day this child can write an incredible 'What I did on my summer vacation' report — 'I appeared in my lesbian grandmother's cabaret act.'"

Lavner remembers writing "gender neutral" love songs as a child after teaching herself to play the piano. Music and baseball were her loves. "Baseball was very important in Brooklyn at that time," she said. "Lesbians are big on softball today, but we played hardball when I was a kid and when we didn't have a ball, we used tin cans. The real wimps were the kids who got tetanus shots."

As an adult, she taught English to gifted students while moonlighting in a Manhattan piano bar frequented "mostly by gay men, who taught me how to camp and kid around. I came dressed in my best lesbian formal wear — a tuxedo shirt and jacket. One night there was a blizzard and I struggled to get to the bar and went on in what I was wearing, which was jeans and a flannel shirt. For six months after that, they called me 'Chuck.' "

Lavner's act has since been seen in 40 states and five foreign countries and reached an even wider audience through her own recording label, Bent Records. She performs mostly in gay and lesbian venues. Reviews often mention that she has the potential to reach a more mainstream audience, a la k.d. lang.

But Lavner seems to have little interest in becoming what she calls "the straight man's lesbian." "However, I would like to see my culture accessible to everyone. 'Fiddler on the Roof' is very specifically a Jewish story and 'Ain't Misbehavin' is black music and the black experience, but both are accessible to and enjoyed by all audiences. The gay sensibility has that potential, too. I would like to see it bloom for everyone."

October 17, 1994

Dear Director,

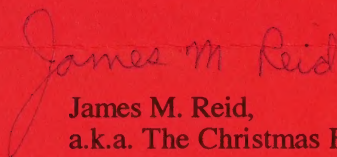

I am a Gay businessman who has always been crazy about Christmas; thus the name: "The Christmas Fairy™". In an attempt to put Gay and Christmas together, I have designed this line of Gay themed Christmas ornaments. Each ornament is packaged in a fine gift box, with the history of the ornament printed on the bottom of the box. We are developing both a wholesale and mail order business. We have printed a full color postcard/ catalog/ order form to help in the marketing of our products. Since it is our policy to donate 10% of our profits to Lesbian and Gay charities, we have a line on our order form for our customers to designate their favorite charity.

The manager of a M.C.C. bookstore in Florida suggested that we distribute our postcards through Metropolitan Community Churches and donate 10% of our profits to the individual Churches. Since we track the source of all of our mail order customer orders on computer, it is easy for us to calculate the total orders from each source and send a check for 10% of each order to that Church. It is our goal to have our ornaments on thousands of Christmas trees across the country, as a symbol of pride in being Gay and a loving being.

It is our proposal, that we send to you a number of our postcards along with a few samples of our ornaments; and that you make them available to your congregation. You could write the name of your Church on the line for designated charity. In December, we will send a check to your Church equal to 10% of all orders sent in from your congregation.

Please let us know if you would like to receive samples, and the number of post cards that you would like. Also if you have a bookstore that would be interested in carrying our ornaments, we will send along wholesale price information. The Metropolitan Community Church in Florida is carrying our AIDS ribbon ornament in their bookstore, and distributing our postcards for the other ornaments. If you have any ideas that you would like to see made into a Gay themed Christmas ornament, please let us know. We would love to hear from you.

With warm affection,

James M. Reid,
a.k.a. The Christmas Fairy™

"This leather-bedecked entertainer is one of the few performers who can bridge the gap between gay and straight audiences. While we're never in doubt about where Lavner's preferences lie, her material embraces all with its humanity and humor. Make a point of seeing this peerless performer."

—New York Native

"Sets audiences cheering."

—San Francisco Examiner

"Performing all her own material, Lynn Lavner can keep you laughing at the wry humor in her lyrics, warm your heart with her wonderfully human monologues, or pierce your soul."

—Back Stage, New York

"A fabulous entertainer...someone with whom I've shared bagels and lox."

—Harvey Fierstein

"Lavner's act is classic cabaret. She's more than just a New York sensation now."

—Chicago Sun Times

"The brightest bits of Lenny Bruce's first forays into political commentary are reflected in Lavner's work. Absolutely compelling... ignites her audience."

—Current Affairs, San Antonio

"The variety of her accompaniments comes across as richly melodic. I especially loved her ragtime piano. The audience went wild."

—The Weekly News, Miami

"Unquestionably a brilliant performer."

—Los Angeles Dispatch

"I can think of no other lesbian songwriter who's so appealing to both gay men and women."

—The Advocate

"Brilliant!"

—Robin Tyler

"A powerhouse show that kept us laughing and sometimes left us a little teary-eyed. It's this willingness to question everything, to avoid political correctness, that makes Lavner the important voice she is."

—Philadelphia Gay News

FOOTPRINTS

One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the LORD. Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. For each scene, he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand; one belonged to him, and the other to the LORD.

When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life.

This really bothered him and he questioned the LORD about it. "LORD, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you most you would leave me."

My precious, precious child never leave you, and suffering, when prints, it was then

An Innovative Meditation Book Proclaims That The Bible and Homosexuality Are Not Mutually Exclusive

"Glaser believes he must get 'the word' out to the many gay men and lesbians who may wish to rekindle the faith they were raised on but who, like himself, may be uncomfortable with the religion of their families...By combining the Christian calendar with the gay and lesbian calendar, Glaser manages to blend the traditions of religion with the traditions of we who are in today's world."--Southern Voice

Chris Glaser's unique 365 meditation book, The Word Is Out, is a resource for gay men and lesbians interested in reclaiming the spirituality so long denied them by many religious traditions. Glaser shows how "coming out" and living in a predominantly heterosexual world are affirmed by Bible's clear call to lamentation, liberation, and community.

To reflect this universality, each month's meditations are centered on issues corresponding to both the Christian and the gay and lesbian calendars. For June, Gay Pride month, Glaser illumines the Bible's encouraging words of liberation and victorious celebration. In keeping with the Christian period of mourning and lamentation throughout February and March, Glaser affirms the anger and pain of dealing with AIDS, gay bashing, and discrimination.

By interrelating the goals, failures, and victories of many liberation movements, The Word Is Out speaks to not only gays and lesbians, but also to other groups who have been long excluded by the church's struggle with racism, sexism, and classism. "Liberation changes the very form of this world! Whether deliverance from oppression, salvation from sin, or freedom from legalism, liberation transforms our experience of God's realm."

Chris Glaser is a graduate of Yale Divinity who reconciled his spirituality with his homosexual orientation despite the limited support from his religious community. He is available for interviews and as a resource on gay and lesbian spirituality.

Joie de Vivre Metropolitan Community Church of Baton Rouge

Reverend Nancy J. Horvath, Pastor

Post Office Box 64996

Baton Rouge, Louisiana 70896

(504) 383-0450

November 21, 1994

Dear Friends in Christ:

The accompanying material relates to an exciting fundraising project we would like to share with other UFMCC congregations and ministries.

At Joie de Vivre MCC, we have been blessed with the professional production of studio quality audio and video tapes of our pastor's five-part sermon series on "What the Bible Says and Doesn't Say About Homosexuality."

We realize many UFMCC ministers have preached similar sermons. And we know that some video tapes and audio tapes have been produced. However, we know these sermons are the product of five to six years of extensive research, and we think this is the first time such uplifting tapes have been produced in a professional studio using the latest state-of-the-art equipment and expertise. These are attractively packaged tapes, which can make excellent additions to your church or personal libraries, gifts for friends or loved ones and so much more.

At the suggestion of our pastor, Rev. Nancy Horvath, and the company that produced the tapes, we would like to offer them to your church — both to allow your congregants to enjoy the tapes and to share the fundraising potential of these tapes with you.

All you have to do is display the poster included with this letter. For any tapes that are sold from your congregation, we will send $5 from each videotape and $3 from each set of audio cassettes back to you. (The order forms include a blank where you may write in your church name to ensure rebates are appropriately credited to you. In addition, the operators on our 800 number are instructed to ask callers where they heard about the tapes, so you also will receive credit on all calls made by your congregants.) For those of you who may need additional order forms to place with the poster — or for your bulletins or newsletters — a master also is included.

It's just that simple. There is no investment on your part (other than extra copies of order forms if you elect to run them). All you have to do is display this poster. We'll fill the orders from your congregants and mail tapes to them. Then we'll mail $5 from each video order and $3 from each audio order back to you — just for displaying this poster and/or publicizing this effort any other way you see fit.

We're excited about this project, and we want to share the good news and the profits with you and your congregation. We are continuously faced with tapes that take a condemning view of us. Isn't it time we all had the chance to own tapes that provide a much more positive view? Please join us in this effort, and feel free to call me if you have questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

Thomas A. Merrill
Fundraising Team Chair

QUESTIONS? CALL US TOLL-FREE (800) 748-6220

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

1. Is there a minimum order? No. Never. You can order 1 or 1000, and you still get the same great price.
2. Is there a set-up charge, artwork fee, or charge for the gift box? No. You pay just $19.75 plus $1.00 shipping and handling per watch.
3. What do we charge for the watches? You are free to set your own pricing. Comparable quality watches, with similar specifications, sell for up to $300. Most organizations sell the watches for between $25 and $40, with great success. Some organizations give the watches away as awards, or use them in raffles, etc.
4. Are there both mens and ladies sizes? Yes. Many ladies order the Large Face watch, so it is a unisex design. We also have a Small Face ladies size available. You can mix and match sizes when you order.
5. Can we mix and match band colors when we order? Yes. Some organizations limit the band color choices available to simplify ordering, but we are happy to supply your watches with any of our 8 band colors.
6. What is the turnaround time? For the initial sample, turnaround time is normally 3 weeks from the date we receive the order. For repeat orders, this is reduced to approximately 2 weeks, as the artwork has already been set up.
7. How do we order in the future? Ordering is simple. Just call our 800 hotline and place the order. Because we have no minimum order, you can sell the watches all year long, and just call in as needed. Many place orders 5 to 10 times per year.
8. Do we have to prepay the order? Yes, but preselling the product allows you to collect in advance & send payment with order. Please do not send cash. For your convenience Visa, Mastercard, and American Express are accepted.
9. What are my choices for dial designs? We have several popular designs in stock (see above). If you wish to use your own artwork or logo, follow the instructions on the order form and send in the clearest artwork available of your logo or image. (If you can't find the artwork you want, call us. We can work together to make your watch the best it can be!)
10. Yes, I want a sample. What do I do? Simply fill out the attached order form and mail it, along with your payment in the attached envelope. Our Art Dept. will start your Faith Watch immediately.

Love is...

One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the LORD. Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. For each scene, he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand; one belonged to him, and the other to the LORD. When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life. This really bothered him and he questioned the LORD about it. "LORD, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you most you would leave me." The LORD replied, "My precious, precious child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

SELLING IDEAS

A practical alternative for children's groups...

The "Place-a-Case" fund-raising method is ideal for teenage and adult groups, too!

The concept is simple: Have the adults involved with your group—the parents of your youth or your adult members—place a case of products in their office break areas, company lunch rooms, or on their desks.

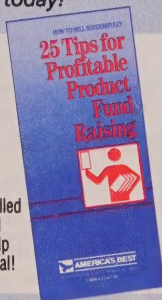

Co-workers who walk by will see the products, stop...and buy! After a few days, your adults will sell out and have cash to return to you.

Fund-raising success can be just that easy! Order today!

FOOTPRINTS

One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the LORD. Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. For each scene, he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand; one belonged to him, and the other to the LORD.

When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life.

This really bothered him and he questioned the LORD about it. "LORD, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints, I don't understand why when I needed you most you would leave me."

The LORD replied, "My precious, precious child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

In His Hands.

YOURS AT NO COST OR OBLIGATION COMPLETE INFORMATION ON HOW TO RAISE MORE MONEY MORE EASILY THIS YEAR!

Dear Fund Raiser,

With your permission, I'd like to send you a Fund Raising Information Kit that gives you full and complete details on how your organization can raise more money this year -- and how they can do it more easily.

Please don't misunderstand me. I know as well as you there's no such thing as "easy money". Money earned in Fund Raising Drives has to be worked for just like other money. But some dollars come easier than others. And I'm ready to prove, with the Kit we're going to send, that we can help make your Fund Raising a lot easier ... and more FUN too!

In fact, with less effort than your members would spend in selling just about anything else available, they can raise from $2,500 to $5,000 -- or more -- in just one drive in three weeks or less!

How? By selling something everyone wants, everyone likes -- and that practically everyone can afford -- when they buy it from you. By offering what is ordinarily a healthful but expensive treat at once-a-year prices, which folks are going to snap up as quickly as they would buy dollar bills at half price!

And, if experience of others is any guide, what everyone likes and wants and is willing to buy from you is INDIAN RIVER CITRUS FROM FLORIDA!

Why? Because it's the most sought-after citrus in the world. Because of its superior flavor, it brings premium prices in the wholesale and retail markets whenever it is offered.

It's sweeter, tastier and juicier. It's so much easier to sell, because so many people really don't have to be sold. They already know about it. They already want it -- and they are delighted when they discover they can buy this gourmet fruit from you at the price of ordinary supermarket fruit.

Be assured these are not idle claims. Here is a sampling of comments from some of Hale's satisfied Fund Raising customers:

"People call us around the same time each year asking when they can buy. This is the 10th year our troop has sold fruit and the profits enable us to fund all of our expenses for the year."

-- James Fleming, Boy Scout Troop #138

"Hale Indian River Groves is one of the best fund raisers I have ever worked with. The fellowship among my group was beautiful. Hale's fund raiser brought my group the money it needed and just the name made the difference. Thank you Hale Groves."

-- Yvonne Nettles, Freedom Temple

(over, please)

"It's nice to sell something, and then have the people you sold it to come back and thank you for it."

-- Robert Helling, Eagle Lodge

"It's great! It's good! It's healthy! It's fun! The profit is great!"

-- Gwen Blackmon, Little People Learning Center

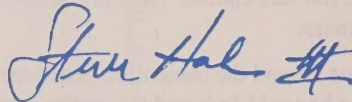

I know you're going to try to get the best possible deal in your next Fund Raising Drive, and I don't blame you. I know you're going to consider a number of ideas and products before you make up your mind about the one which is best for your particular organization. That's fine with us. We welcome the comparison. And we truly believe we can hold our own with any other supplier of fund raising products. All we ask is that we be included in your considerations when your organization makes its final decision.

Why Hales? You be the judge:

1. A No Risk Program -- You do not have to commit for or buy merchandise in advance.
2. Big Profits -- A full truckload sale will net your group over $5,000 in just a few weeks. Many do better!
3. Free Sales Aids -- Everything you need to conduct a successful Hale Indian River Citrus Sale will be provided -- FREE.
4. Expert Service -- Here at Hales we pride ourselves on our nation-wide Toll-Free Phone Service. We are available seven days a week and are always as close as your phone to offer suggestions and assistance as needed.
5. Dependability -- Hale Indian River Groves dates back to 1947. Over the past 48 years, we have grown to be Florida's largest Gift Fruit Shipper because we deliver the finest and stand behind our product 100%. We'll do the same for you!
6. Repeat Sales -- Nearly half of our Fund Raising Clients conduct both a Fall and Spring Sale. Some carry on a "Sale a Month". That is ambitious ... but when customers keep asking for more, it's hard not to oblige.

Mail the enclosed "Inquiry Card" today! It will be our pleasure to rush you full details, sample literature and a Hale Gift Catalog to whet your appetite.

Sincerely,

Steve Hale III

Hale Groves cultivates and grows the Best Citrus You Ever Tasted!

Hale Groves is ideally located in Indian River Country, the very heart of the famous Indian River Citrus belt. This tiny, narrow strip of Florida, extending from Daytona Beach to West Palm Beach, is truly unique in the world citrus industry. It is so distinctive in its soil composition, water quality, climate, and salt air content that the Federal Trade Commission protects its Indian River Brand, prohibiting its use on products from any other area of the country. Citrus experts have long recognized the fact that Indian River fruit is the most delicious in America.

Hale Groves backs up a superior product with over 45 years of professional service you can count on!

Since 1947, the Hale family has enjoyed the good fortune of being in just the right place at the right time to grow the BEST...and share it with nice folks like you! MOST CHURCHES ARE UNAWARE OF THE EXTENT AND SEVERITY OF LITIGATION THEY COULD FACE RELATED TO ALLEGATIONS OF CHILD SEXUAL ABUSE.

The Child Protection Act of 1993 will be enforced Federally by the end of 1995. These Federal mandates will most assuredly have a direct effect on your church.

What can you do?

MARET Systems International and Word, Incorporated have co-developed THE CHILD SAFETY PROGRAM—a comprehensive system to help you evaluate your child-related programs and screen people who work in them.

Beautiful rings and crosses in 14k gold or sterling silver

Over the past few years, we've been delighted to offer these fine rings and pendants to members and friends of our local church.

Now we're introducing this jewelry, boldly emblazoned with the Chi Ro (PX), Alpha and Omega symbols adopted by UFMCC, to individuals and churches throughout the fellowship.

Each piece is custom molded and cast in either sterling silver or 14k gold, then hand polished to a brilliant shine.

Both the rings and crosses are perfect for men or women — for yourself, clergy, anyone involved in MCC ministry.

And with substantial discounts for quantity orders, they're a great way to earn extra money for your church.
